TILEING DEFEATS JUGGLER.

LEADS ALL THE WAY IN THE CORONA STAKES AT JAMAICA.

Preceptor Surprises Folks-Cella Shows a Probable Crack in Tod-Jockey Sumter Not Badly Hurt-George Odom Buys Trance.

New York, May 1.—The racing at Jamaica today tame and uninteresting, scratches reducing the fields materially in some of the races. After last night's downpour it was expected that the track would be muddy, but under the influence of a hard wind the surface of the course was dry, but was soft underneath and far from fast. The weather was very cold and the attendance was kept down to the regulars. For those that did turn out it was only a fairly profitable day, as but two choices won, although the winners all had a following.

The feature was the Corona Stakes, for which there were only three starters. Juggler was a slight favorite throughout over Tileing, but the latter was much the best in the going. Juggler was stiffer than usual when he appeared on the track, and did not warm out of it in his customary way. Tileing took the lead early and had an easy thing of it to the end. Juggler could not outrun Sir Toddington until seven furlongs had been covered and ran far below his best form.

The condensed history of the Corona Stakes is as Light Wool had no trouble in administering decisive beating to Berkeley, the favorite for the handicap for which there were four starters. Light Wool was on his bad behavior at the post but broke flying and made every post a winning one. It was a bad race, however, and, except the winner, of the starters is entitled to rank with good handicap horses, except with a big pull in the weights.

The fact that Preceptor's two beaten races were in stakes was overlooked by the bettors who made both J. H. Reed and Indomitable favorites over him for the opening race. Preceptor made a runaway race of it, however, and will surely pay his way in the two-year-old selling races. Indomitable, like most of the get of Watercress, was not suited by the soft going and can do much better than his performance of today.

There were tips galore for the two-year-old race thich closed the card, but as usual, the winner turned up in one that had some racing experi-This was H. T. Griffin's Havre, which ran the favorite, Lilypad, into defeat and won handily enough from Tod. Lilypad, Tod, The Robin, Ruble and Miss Battenberg were each heavily backed. Tod is said to be the fastest youngster in L. A. Cella's stable and none of those with which he is likely to beat him again, especially when the distances are stretched out. He is a beautiful big colt by Sempronius—Ethelinda II. He was green and broke slowly, but was running great through the stretch and has the cut of a stake colt. Miss Battenberg, a very ratty, fractious youngster, got the worst of some crowding after going a furlong and fell. G. Swain, who rode her, was fortunate to escape injury, being only shaken up and Sumter, who was removed to the hospital after getting a fall from Patriot yesterday, is not badly hurt and it is expected that he will be all right in a day or two.

F. Carman, who appears to hold a strong hand for the Long Beach Handicap tomorrow, will have to look around for a rider, as G. Burns was today set down for five days. His offense was breaking through the barrier with Sir Toddington

At a meeting of the republican state committee last night the proposition to make the endorsement of Governor Hughes' position on the race track question a feature of his claims for the presidency when his name is presented in the national convention, was unanimously voted down.

WILL RACE TEN THOUSAND DOLLAR COLT.

Tourenne, the four-year-old colt by Oddfellow-Ethel Thomas, which was purchased for $10,000 from Frederick Forsythe last fall, is among the horses shipped from Washington to New York by Mr. Mackenzie, the Canadian turfman and will probably be a starter at Belmont Park. The string in charge of trainer Whyte was found in excellent conwhen visited by their owner, who, it is said, plans to assemble a first-class stable during the Disqualification, Fines and Suspension Handed Offenders-Native Son Takes the Feature.

Oakland, Cal., May 1 .- Today's racing at Oakland was seriously marred by rough riding and in at least one instance was followed by a disqualification, a rare proceeding here and heavy fines for the offending jockeys. This disciplining of both horse and rider occurred in the third race, in which Turnaway, with W. Kelly up, got home first by a narrow margin from Emma G. after deliberately fouling the latter when a furlong out, which palpably prevented her from winning a clean-cut Under the elastic and unique rules of the California Jockey Club the stewards were empowered to simply reverse the placing of the pair at the finish and the race was awarded to Emma G., with Turnaway second. Kelly was fined $50 for his share in the fiasco. Moreland was also taxed $25 for mishandling Vinton in the fifth race to the detriment of the favorite, Earl Rogers, which, however, successfully overcam the interference and won despite it. The running of the closing race was marked by a thrilling mix up on the first turn in which Elevation and Cholk Hedrick were eliminated as contenders. The officials will investigate this race tomorrow. The rac ing began with a disagreeable incident, namely the suspicious looking ride put up by J. Carroll on the odds-on favorite Bernardo. M. J. Daly's appren jockey was subsequently suspended, which ruling met with popular favor generally.

In pleasing contrast to the foregoing drawbacks to the afternoon's sport was the unusually fine barrier work of the starter. Every one of his starts today was nearly perfect, and as a matter of fact Mr. Dwyer has surpassed himself in this respect during the past two weeks. The Friday program, with a solitary exception. offered no inducements for horses of good class to participate, and in consequence the majority of the races were contested by the cheapest class of selling platers.

Harry Stover's much-improved sprinter, Native Son, captured the most important race. Nearly every one present benefited by the Glenheim gelding's easy victory.

The threatening weather exercised a deterrent effect on the attendance, which showed a considerable falling off. Indications are for rain tonight and tomorrow.

The honors were shared equally by favorites and outsiders. Lord Filigrane was the medium of a mild killing in the last race.

HEART FAILURE OF HORSES.

Succory dropped dead in the paddock after the race, and it is an extraordinary coincidence that brother, Chicory, should have died in similar fashion only a week before. Heart failure would doubtless be the cause in each instance, and it almost seems that the discussion commenced in The Sportsman on this subject is creating instances of the trouble in question. Much in the same way there appears to have been a growing vogue for appendicitis ever since people began to talk about it and His Majesty was successfully operated on by Sir Frederick Treves, who thereby earned universal gratitude. It may be hoped, however, that as a result of the discussion on heart disease in horses, following on the recent deaths of Sancy, The Law yer III., Chicory and Succory, more attention will be paid to this matter, for it is, I believe, a fact that very many horses which have been hard trained and raced suffer from hypertrophy, that is to say, enlargement of the heart, which enlargement may result from increase in the development of the muscular structure (hypertrophy of the muscular walls). or from dilation of the cavaties by extra pressure from within. The muscles may in many cases b only strained and in that case, after a rest, will resume their normal condition, but the trouble is that considerable changes may take place in the muscular structure of the heart without any symptoms at all being apparent. When, however, function of the heart is materially disturbed by hypertrophy expert examination will quickly detect it. The heart of a horse in normal condition weigh from seven to eight pounds, and it may be increased by this disease to twelve pounds or more. Vigilant, in London Sportsman.

Morris' Filly Defeats Al Busch in a Drive-Sugar Pine Wins and Is in Demand.

Baltimore, Md., May 1.—Society turned out in force at Pimlico this afternoon, among the attracbeing the Clabaugh Memorial Cup, one of the annual fixtures of the Maryland Jockey Club's spring meeting. A field of the best two-year-olds in training here went to the post and a rousing good contest resulted, the Barbarity Stable's filly Cunning, winning by a half length from the favor ite, Al Busch, after a driving finish.

Alfred Hennen Morris came all the way from New Orleans to see his filly run, and had the satisfaction of seeing the famous Barbarity colors carried to a gallant victory. The race was a very fast one, Conflict setting a terrific pace in the early stages and when she had Al Rusch tired. Cunning came with a great burst of speed and won drawing out.

Following is the tabulated record of the Clabaugh demorial Cup:

Winner. 1906 Woodlin . . . 1907 Billie Hibbs 1908 Cunning . . . Four favorites and a well-backed second choice won. Jockey McCahey rode two winners, one of which was on the long shot, Helen Hills, which captured the opening race. In the sixth race Sugar Pine nearly equalled the track record for a mile and sixty yards by running the distance in 1:461. Sugar Pine was much the best and was only cantering at the finish, where he had a four lengths lead. Had there been something in the race to force him along he would have hung new track record. Several horsemen tried to buy him after the race. J. W. Colt made an offer of $5,000 which was refused. At the Benning meet-

THIRTY LEADING HORSES.

Meelick still holds his pride of place as the leader among the wealth-gathering horses of the year, but Jack Atkin is pressing him closely. A good twoyear-old, Marse Abe, leads the horses in respect to number of races won, having eight to his credit and but for a disqualification, would have nine. The three-year-old, Import, also has eight wins to his credit, but is nothing more than a useful plater. Next are Jack Atkin, Pedro, Donna and Pajaroita with seven victories each. Keep Moving Outstays Hasty Agnes in a Desperately Contested Race but Is Disqualified for Fouling Her Competitor.

Lexington, Ky., May 1.-Jockey Lee's good riding vas the feature at the Lexington track this afternoon, when the racing thread was taken up again after a rest of one day, due to the snowstorm of yesterday. His followers gave the betting ring a drubbing that the twelve layers on hand will not on forget. His successes were achieved astride Charlotte Hamilton, Light Blue, St. Valentine and Hasty Agnes. In addition, he barely failed to land Toddy Hodge, which was beaten by a nose in a desperate drive by Estella C.

The chief incident of the racing came with the running of the fourth race, in which a shifty band of three-year-old fillies contested at seven furlongs. Hasty Agnes and Keep Moving furnished keen excitement for the spectators by racing as a team for nearly three-quarters, both striving hard for the lead. In the final furlong Keep Moving, which hade retained an outer position, was gradually forging to the van when Powers, her rider, made the mistake of allowing her to swerve slightly and thereby impede Hasty Agnes. Powers evidently became rattled over the mishap, for he made but slight effort to straighten his mount, with the inevitable result. A foul was apparent, and despite the fact that Hasty Agnes was thoroughly done for at the time of the interference, the judges had no other alternative but to disqualify Keep Moving and award the purse to Hasty Agnes, Whisk Broom and Lexington Lady being moved up to second and third places respectively.

Mose Goldblatt, owner of Keep Moving and H. Clark, owner of Hasty Agnes, met after the race and at the end of a wordy discussion, Goldblatt offered to bet $1,000 that Keep Moving can beat the other filly, but there is little chance of his being able to get a match race. Keep Moving is engaged in the Kentucky Oaks and is reckoned a serious contender in that fixture.

Old St. Valentine was made the medium of confident backing in the closing race and he made good with ridiculous ease, winning cantering after spreadeagling his opponents. Favorites landed two of the purses, but as every winner was extensively supported, the layers reported severe losses.

The mild weather was instrumental in bringing out a big attendance. The sport, however, was The closest finish came with the only mediocre. running of the third race when Estella C. and Toddy Hodge engaged in a sharp last sixteenth duel with victory hanging in the balance until the last stride. Most of the horsemen now here will depart tomorrow night for Louisville on a special train.

Jockey J. Lee has been secured to ride Black Mary in the Kentucky Oaks by E. R. Bradley.

Through a clerical error, Louise Macfarlan was entered for tomorrow's last race. The mare will be unable to start, as she is at present in Louisville, where she was shipped yesterday. L. A. Cella's horses racing in this section will be shipped to Louisville next Sunday.

Daingerfield, manager of the Castleton Stud, where the Keene horses are bred and trained in Kentucky, he will win enough of the rich stakes in which he is entered in the east to be counted as a worthy associate of the undefeated Colin, Kingston, Delhi, Peter Pan and other notables in the Keene stable.

Of this grand band of racers, Kingston stands at the head with $131,823 earned on the turf. Colin ranks second with $131,007, Peter Pan third with $116,450 and Delhi fourth with $115,640. Ballot and Colin should give good account of themselves this year after which it is probable they will both be retired to the stud.

A more valuable or better bred band of thoroughbreds would be hard to find the world over.

DEATH OF ONE OF ENGLAND'S GREAT RIDERS

Harry Custance died at his home in Leicester England, Sunday, April 19. In his young manhood was one of a band of brilliant jockeys which included George Fordham, Tom Cannon, Chaloner, the Osbornes, Goater, French, Wells and Maidment. Custance was sixty-seven years old when he died. It is a matter of record that he rode in every Epsom Derby from 1860 to 1879, inclusive, and won with Thormanby, Lord Lyon and George Frederick, besides being second with Dundee and Albert Victor and third with Rob Roy. He also won the One Thousand with Achievement and the St. Leger with Lord Lyon. Custance was very popular and much respected for his manly character. Of some parts of his early career London Sporting Life says: Edward Smith, with 'Bell's Life,' and George Fordham who really first took Custance in hand; indeed, Mr. Smith brought the deceased as a little boy to Epsom, where he lived, and had charge of a long string of horses, of which Adamas won the City and Subur ban and was beaten a head for the Metropolitan the same afternoon. Later in the year (1857) Adamas was very nearly preventing Blink Bonny from scoring in the Derby; indeed, Wells, who rode him, always declared that he had won. Custance, a Ensom, soon got plenty of riding, and the fast friendship that here sprang up between the de ceased, Wells and Fordham was a lasting one. At the end of the fifties the trio were inseparable. The small but now non-existing meetings in Kent. Suffolk and Norfolk were the rounds taken, and the 'syndicate' perhaps never eclipsed the 1856 visit to Beccles. Mr. 'Mellish,' in whose name Mr. Smith used to run his horses, there won seven of the eight races on the two days. The course was a cir cular one, and Custance used to relate that when Fordham won the two miles and a half handicap on Tame Deer he was not certain of the number of laps, so went an extra round to make sure of vic-

"It was through Mr. Smith and Adamas that Custance came to have his first important winning mount, the Cesarewitch of 1858, in which he rode Mr. Lambert's Rocket at 6st. 4lb., and in one of the most desperate struggles ever known beat his old friend, Fordham, a head on Prioress, and D. Hughes, also of Epsom, on The Brewer, which the judge was unable to separate from Mr. Ten Broeck's previous year's winner. That Cesarewitch saw much closer fighting than the one he rode for Mr. Bevill, father of the present inspector of steeplechase courses, in 1861, on Audrey, but between Rocket's exciting event and 1860 there was nothing very much worthy of note in Custance's career, but in the spring of the season just mentioned he did 7st. and won the City and Suburban on Comforter, after a dead beat with Lord Nelson, which was ridden by Wells. At that time Custance had left the employ of Mr. Smith, and the good luck which he had at Epsom at the spring meeting stood by him at the summer re-union. An association then d sprung up between the deceased and the late Matthew Dawson, and as first jockey for Russley Custance began well by taking the Woodcote Stakes on Dundee, and the next afternoon secured the first of his three Derbys on Thormanby, actually the first mount he ever had in Epsom's classic race."

ANSWERS TO QUERIES

[Communications without names and addresses of senders will not be answered or noticed; nor will any answers be sent by mail.]

George G., St. Louis, Mo. The bet on Spooner was a draw.

J. E. Burke, Chicago. You deserve no other reply than that your statements are untrue.

Ed A., Louisville, Ky. The bet on Spooner a draw regardless of where his stable mate finished. W. W., Louisville, Ky. The jockey inquired about s a negro boy. Stanley Fay's first start was at Cowan, Chicago. The parlay won as a single straight bet on Jack Atkin, being void to Distract because there was no separate place price against the latter.

Oakland, April 5, 1907.

Edw. R., Cincinnati, O. If the Newcastle entry was backed the wager certainly won. An entry is one of more horses and one of a coupled entry starting is sufficient.

H. W. L. and G. C., Chicago. Fitz Herbert having been sold, was no longer a part of the Joyner entry and the wagers lost. A bettor can easily protect himself by naming his preferred horse start. A bet on the Joyner entry, Fitz Herbert to start, would have been a draw.

Winner—Ch. e. by Woolsthorpe—Aluminum (trained by H. McDaniel).

Went to post at 3:23. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily: second and third driving. Light Wool outbroke the others and won all the way unextended. Berkeley was rated in the early stages and ran well, but failed when called on in the linal quarter. Zlenap found her weight troublesome and was bearing out all through the stretch drive. Umbrella was outclassed and never a contender. Scratched—74474 Tileing, 124; (74475)Halket, 126; 74314 Royal Lady, 115; 70128 Bilfil, 108.

 Winner—B. c, by Hastings—Futile (trained by J. H. McCormick).
 Went to post at 3:48. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Tileing went into the lead quickly and, after being rated in front all the way, had plenty left in the stretch to withstand the final challenge of Juggler. The latter ran a dull race and appeared sore when going to the post, was outrun to the stretch and did not show his usual courage in the last quarter. Sir Toddington followed Tileing to the stretch, where he had enough and tired, but should do soon in slower company. The winner was entered for $1,000; no bid.

 Scratched—74375*Grapple, 106; (74547)Light Wool, 168; 74474 Alauda, 94; 74426 Keator, 106.

4550 SIXTH RACE—4 1-2 Furlongs. (45456—54—2—108.) $700 added. 2-year-olds. Maidens. Special Weights. Net value to winner $680.

ECIAL POSTPONED!

On account of the wretched and very unsatisfactory track conditions prevailing at Lexington at present, it has been decided to postpone Special until next Saturday, May 9. We do not awnt our subscribers to take any more chances with their money than absolutely necessary, and under present track conditions it is almost impossible to guarantee a true running of the race, hence the postponement. TODAY will have one at OAKLAND that we are sending out on our DAILY 2-HORSE WIRE, which will be from 5 to 10 to 1.

This horse is exceptionally good right now, and we do not think will have any trouble winning. DO NOT MISS IT.

PRICE, $1.00.
